THE WEEKLY GAZETTE is now the largest paper printed in the State, and having the matter published in the DAILY to select from, we challenge comparison with any newspaper in Wisconsin. A Cheerful Copperhead.

The most cheerful number of the Chicago Times that we have read in a long time, was the issue of yesterday morning, which contained an editorial summary of Gen. Lee's brilliant maneuvering during the battle on Friday, when the rebels doubled up our flanks, like a piece of wet rag, and got possession of Germania Ford. Then it related how splendidly Lee withdrew his forces on Friday night, taking his position upon the assumption that Grant, like Hooker at Chancellesville, would try to get away, all of which excited the most profound admiration of the secesh Times. And then the idea that Lee had retreated in good order to Spottsylvania Court House, a naturally strong position, and would then give Grant battle, was told with extreme unction; and if the news of Grant's utter defeat and overthrow, should reach Chicago to-night, there isn't a doubt but that the Times would place its biggest rooster at the head of its columns!

But why should'nt it? Hasn't a man the right to rejoice over the victory of his own friends?

ANOTHER AFFRAY IN EGYPT.—Another desperate and bloody affray between soldiers and sympathizers with treason has occured in the southern part of the State. On Friday night last a squad of fifteen soldiers of an Illinois regiment proceeded to a place four miles south of Xenia, for the purpose of arresting some deserters of their regiment. At a lonely spot on the road, the little band was ambushed by the cowardly friends of the deserters, in overwhelming numbers. Over half of the soldiers were shot, some fatally, and the remainder were obliged to return to Xenia. The greatest excitement, consequent upon the affair, prevails in that section of the country.

THE PRETTY rebel spy named Emma Jones, who was sent North some time ago, has been banished by Governor Andrew to Barnstable, Mass., to stop during the summer. She is a native of Massachusetts, but confesses her attachment to southern institutions, although declaring she never was a spy.

THE COL. Woodward, son of Judge Woodward of Pa., reported killed in the recent engagement near Chancellorsville, was formerly a resident of Milwaukee, (George Woodward) and well known to many of her citizens, having held the office of city attorney of that city, some five or six years ago.

THE TERROR of the North Carolina waters, the new and formidable rebel ram, which helped to capture our garrison at Plymouth—is disposed of. She was attacked and sunk in Albemarle Sound by a United States war steamer.

CONCERT OF THE MUSICAL UNION.—Lappin's Hall was well filled last evening, in attendance upon the concert of the Musical Union of this city. We propose to give a somewhat lengthy notice of the entertainment to-morrow.

RICHLAND COUNTY has a full company for 100 days service. This county at the last Presidential election cast somewhat over 1,900 votes and has already sent some 1,500 of her brave sons to the war.

THE FORT Atkinson Chief says forty-nine members of Oakland Lodge, I. O. of G. T., have enlisted since the war commenced. Nine of them have gone to their rest.

THE THIRD CAVALRY.—We learn that the 3d cavalry are expected to reach this city about 7 o'clock this evening.

GEN. STEELE commander of the Arkansas expedition is a brother of congressman Steele of the Ulster (N. Y.) district.

MR ROBERT CLARK, deputy-warden in the Illinois penitentiary, was killed by a convict last week.

SEVERAL HORSE-THIEVES have been captured and hanged in Southwestern Missouri. The home militia hunted them.

A GREAT religious revival is in progress in Williams College.

INDIANA DIVORCES are not binding in Ohio. So decided by the Courts,

THE INDIANS RETURNED.—The Chippewa delegation of Chiefs and Interpreters arrived from their visit to Washington yesterday, by the Northern Belle, in charge of A. B. Ramsey. They all look much cleaner, fatter and better than before they went on, and have no doubt enjoyed themselves hugely. Mr. Hole-in-the-day and Look Around are not with the party. They were both too badly wounded in their late rencounter to come in with the rest. Mr. Wykoff is left in charge of them.—St. Paul Press.

FATE OF THE CHURCHES.—The Rev. T. Cuyler, writing from Culpepper Va., April 28th says:

I am ensconced to-day in the gallery of a deserted Episcopal church in the ancient aristocratic Culpepper. Down in the broken pews on the lower floor, the Pendletons, Hills, and Mercers, and their patricians, have "said or sung" the English liturgy for a generation or more. Immediately under the church window lie the family of General A. P. Hill, who was born in yonder old brick house on the corner. The tents of our men stand close up to the graves of the proud old aristocracy of the days of Madison. A few rods off is the Methodist church, now used as a cavalry stable.

E. C. INGERSOLL, of Peoria, has been elected as the successor of Owen Lovejoy in Congress, by a majority of nearly 5,000. Lovejoy's majority in the last election was scarcely so many hundreds.

THE BLUE BOOK.—The Biennial Register or Blue Book is out. It contains 824 pages in very small, closely-printed type. It purports to give the officers and agents, civil, military and navel, in the service of the United States on the 30th of September, 1863; and also shows the State or Territory from which each person was appointed; the State or country in which he was born, and the compensation, pay and emolument of each. The organization of 19 regiments of regulars is given. Of volunteer officers, there are 67 major-generals, of whom Gen. Butler is at the head; 256 brigadier-generals; 417 assistan quartermasters; 370 commissaries of subsistence, and 338 paymasters. The names of regimental officers in the volunteer service are not given. The blue book—always valuable—is especially useful at this time. Washington Letter.

ARMY EQUIPAGES.—A Washington dispatch to the Springfield Republican says an order just issued from the War Department, prohibits the use by general and other officers in the coming campaign, of the luxurious four-horse field carriages furnished by the quartermaster's department at the expense of the government, and constituting a feature peculiar to the army of the Potomac. Gen. Grant riding in the rain to the front the other day on horseback in his usual plain way, met Gen. Ingalls coming into town in one of these Asiatic equipages, and it is said they were mutually surprised.

GEN. GRANT has presented to Brigadier General John A. Rawlings, his chief of staff, a handsome silk sash, upon which, in indelible ink, is the following inscription, the signature of which is in General Grant's own handwriting:

"This sash, worn by me through all my battles and campaigns, from and including the surrender of Vicksburg, July 4th, 1863, is presented to Brigadier General John A. Rowlings, my chief of staff, in evidence of my appreciation as an officer and friend. U. S. GRANT,
Lieutenant General U. S. Army."

BOTH HOUSES of Congress have voted to pay colored soldiers $13 per month.

INSURE WITH THE PHŒNIX INSURANCE COMPANY, HARTFORD.—Our mode of adjusting losses. Feeling it a special duty I owe to the Phœnix Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn., I take great pleasure in expressing my thankfulness for the promptness and liberality they have exhibited in honorably adjusting and paying my claim, for loss sustained by the total destruction of my brick store building and stock of merchandise contained therein in Harrodsburg Ky., a few days since, and upon which I had an insurance in the PHŒNIX.

I am to-day in receipt of the amount of my claim $9,500 sixty days before the same was due, according to the terms of the policy, which is satisfactory evidence in my mind that the PHŒNIX is the Company to do business with.

Editors Gazette:—Will you insert the following remarks made upon the occasion of the presentation of a Saber, Belt and Sash, by Sergt. Perry L. Brooks, in behalf of the Veterans of Co. M, 2d Wis. Cav. to their First Lieut. F. A. Kimball, a resident of your town. It will show to his friends and acquaintances how the Old Soldiers appreciate him as an officer and a man:

LIEUT. KIMBALL:—In behalf of the undersigned veterans of Co. M 2d Wis. Cav., I present you this Saber, Sash and Belt, as a slight testimonial of our confidence in your ability as an officer, in your patriotism and devotion to your country, and appreciation of your labors for the restoration of its wonted peace, prosperity and happiness. For more than two years we have followed you through the trials, hardships and dangers incident to war, and have always found you true to the interests of your country and the men of your company, and in presenting these things to you we do not expect to convey to you a full expression of our appreciation of your true worth and our unbounded confidence in you as an officer.

Take these, and when you lead in battle for our company and the cause of humanity, we will follow, pledged never to sheath the sword until the Union is restored, and liberty, equal rights and justice are established upon a basis as broad as our whole country.

Hospital Steward—Paul G. Strong.

Sergeants—Perry L. Brooks, Geo. W. Walter, Wm. Rhinehart. Peter I. Wright, Clark O. Popple.

Corporals—Wellington Case, Clark R. Buell, Geo. W. Taylor, Sam'l W. Metcalf.

LIEUT. KIMBALL'S REPLY.

VETERANS OF CO. M:—Words would fail me to express to you my feelings upon this occation. Acts only can give full expression to my heartfelt thanks and gratitude to you for your uniform kindness and many evidences of good wishes toward me.

Two years and a half since, you, as new recruits, designated me as your choice to fill the position which I now hold. The compliment was a truly gratifying one, though then neither you nor myself fully realized what would be required of me in that position. We were entering upon a new business: I accepted the position, mentally pledged myself to endeavor to the best of my ability, never to disappoint your expectations; how well I have succeeded you know best.

If, then, that first expression of your confidence and respect was gratifying to me, how much more so should be this new evidence to me that I have not wholly failed to preserve them; the evidence coming now as it does, from you as Veterats, men with whom I have shared the exposures, privations and danger of two years service in the field, men who know what they have a right to expect from their officers.

These things, in themselves, are worthless to me—mere baubles—yet for what they assure me of are of inestimable value, and as we are now returning to our duties in the field, after a short respite from them, in which we have had an opportunity of again mingling in the society of our families and friends, some of us perhaps for the last time, I shall leave these with my family to remind them that that tho' surrounded by foes, I am yet among friends; leave this with them, so that if in the day of battle it should be my lot to fall, they may ever be to them, though silent, yet eloquent and impressive, telling them the sacrifice was made for God, for Liberty, for our Country; of your confidence in and respect for him whom they loved best, which may in some degree console them in their afflictions.

Again I thank you, and again pledge myself to strive to retain your respect and esteem; to endeavor by acts, not words, to show you my appreciation of your good will toward me, and of your characters as men and soldiers; praying that the time may speedily come when this wicked rebellion shall be crushed, treason driven from our country at the point of the bayonets in the hands of her loyal sons, peace restored, liberty guaranteed to every man, the principles of right and justice pervading our land: that those of us who escape the perils of the contest may—our occupation being gone—be permitted to exchange these weapons for the implements of the peaceful pursuits of civil life; exchange the society of the camp for that of our families and friends, and that peace and prosperity may endure to the end

[Special Dispatch to the Gazette.]

CAIRO, May 11th.—Major General C. R. S. Canby, accompanied by his staff, arrived here this morning and left for below on the dispatch boat U. S. Wilson, en route to take command of our forces west of the Mississippi river.

ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

[Special Dispatch to the Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, May 11th.—It is reported that last night our headquarters were two miles in advance of Spottsylvania Court House. A general advance was ordered for five o'clock yesterday (Tuesday) evening, and the firing from that hour to sundown is said to have been very heavy.

It is stated that Grant has captured a large amount of commissary stores.

We are informed by private advices received last evening, that General Grant is meeting with success, and that everything promises well.

Gold declined yesterday afternoon from 76c to 73c.

LATER.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—Accounts from the Army of the Potomac concur that there was heavy fighting yesterday. About five in the afternoon an attack was made upon the rebel batteries, and it is stated that after the assault was continued for some time, it was found the rebel batteries could not be carried without great sacrifice of life. The effort for a time was abandoned.

It is currently reported here this morning that Gen. Warren was wounded on yesterday, and died on the way to Fredericksburg.

The fighting yesterday afternoon is said to have been severe, as heavy artillery was brought into action by both sides. The result as far as is known was to our advantage.

The fighting was renewed to-day.

M.

ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

NEW YORK, May 12.—Herald's special.—Tuesday Gibbons' and Barlow's divisions were withdrawn from the south bank of the Po. The latter's division was closely followed by the enemy, who were checked by our artillery posted along the ridge commanding the river.

Early in the day the whole army began to straighten out in line of battle for a renewal of the engagement. Skirmishing was kept up during this time between the advanced lines of the two armies. The enemy was bestirring himself as though he intended offensive operations. Our line formed with 2d corps on the right, 5th in the centre and 6th on the left, with Burnside's corps in the rear of our left, for the protection of our immense trains and to act as a reserve in any emergency.

The country here is quite rolling, studded with groves of pine and hard wood, and affording much better facilities for handling troops and the use of artillery than about the wilderness.

The enemy during the night strengthened their formidable position with rifle-pits, breastworks, barricades, &c., rendering stronger than any line of defense occupied since leaving the earthworks on the Rapidan.

Thus matters stood until far into the afternoon, when the fighting became quite sharp at intervals at different points, but without anything definite. Five o'clock was fixed for the grand assault. General orders announcing our success under Sherman in the West and Butler on James River read to the troops producing the wildest excitement. As the hour approached for the attack the enthusiasm of the troops became almost ungovernable. Grant surrounded by his staff, Meade, Hancock and Warren all stationed on eminences within sight of each other, while from all parts columns of our army slowly gathered themselves together for the grand struggle. Just as the attack was about to be made the enemy advanced on our right threatening to press back that portion of our line, discontinuing for the time the plan of assault. Our troops were hurried to the support of the right, but Barlow succeeded in checking the rebels, sending back his reinforcements with word that he had men enough and to spare. Half past six was then fixed upon for assault, watches compared by corps commanders, and finally all seperated with orders to attack at the appointed time. At the appointed hour, simultaneously with the roar of the twelve signal guns, the whole front advanced with cheers from the whole line. The movement was indiscribably grand. A portion of our forces moved in solid column, while others advanced in the usual order of battle, the whole army moving together and yet each command fighting its own battle The whole rebel line opened a most murderous fire, against which our lines irresistibly swept, driving the enemy slowly back from his position, capturing nearly 2000 prisoners and three pieces of artillery, the latter however were retaken by rebels before the close of the engagement. Night closed the battle with our forces occupying the field. Loss heavy, but judging from the killed and wounded left in our hands, much less than the enemy's, who fought to the last, our troops bayoneting their men in rifle-pits and forcing them by hand to hand conflicts to yield. General Rice was mortally wounded and died under amputation of his leg. Our loss of prominent officers is great, but the luteness of the hour and my own wound prevents the collection of names. The engagement rendered vigorously and at the time of my departure was progressing favorably.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, May 11.—My despatch yesterday afternoon left our army in the midst of a terrible battle—terrible for the time it lasted as any in the recent series of fights.—Heretofore the contests have been invariably musketry firing, in this battle the roll of artillery firing has been incessant and almost as deafening as at Gettysburg. The battle continued till night and darkness closed the sanguinary struggle, and our army added another to its list of victories.

In the morning a change was made in the disposition of our lines. Meantime our men greatly strengthened their earthworks, throwning up additional abattis and everything evinced a determination to make it a day of decisive results. Very active skirmishing all the forepart of the day, merged at length into a general engagement. As the hours wore on the contest waxed hotter and hotter, and fiercer and sharper was the rattle of musketry and louder the roar of artillery.

WASHINGTON, May 11.

During the last 24 hours, about 7,000 men from the Army of the Potomac, wounded in the battles of Thursday and Friday, arrived here, comparatively few of them suffering severely from injuries, and many will soon be returned to the Army.

FROM WASHINGTON.

EXECUTIVE MANSION
WASHINGTON May 9, 1864.

TO THE FRIENDS OF UNION AND LIBERTY:

Enough is known of army operations within the last five days to claim our especial gratitude to God; while what remains undone demands our most sincere prayers to, and reliance upon Him, without whom all human efforts is vain. I recommend that all patriots at their houses in their places of public worship, and wherever they may be, unite in common prayer and thanksgiving to Almighty God.

[Signed] ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—Gen. Wadsworth had two horses killed under him, and fell mortally wounded from the third, at 1 o'clock Friday. Gen. Grant said that he would rather have lost an entire infantry brigade than this wise and brave man.

By a Richmond paper found on a prisoner, it is stated that the body of Gen. Wadsworth was buried at the Wilderness. This would seem to determine the certainty of his death.

It is also stated that Butler was within 13 miles of Richmond.

Gen. Morris, of the 6th corps, who was standing beside Gen. Sedgwick when killed, was wounded in the leg, but not seriously.

Our army is pressing Lee's retreating forces from all sides, while our cavalry under Sheridan have been and are performing prodigies of valor.

Our troops sustain their hard marching with wonderful endurance and in good spirits.

For a long time after our Wilderness fight it was difficult to make many of the men believe that our movement was not a retreat. But when ascertaining beyond a question that we were advancing, their enthusiasm knew no bounds, and they made the woods ring with huzzas for Grant, Meade Burnside and everybody.

Our wounded have suffered severely, and but for the humane and tender regard for their condition we should undoubtedly ere this be upon the South bank of the Anna, forward still.

FROM BUFFALO.

BUFFALO, May 12.—No confirmation has been received here of the rumor that Sigel had formed a junction with Grant.

GOOD NEWS FROM GEORGIA.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—Gentlemen prominently connected with the government are to-day in good spirits in view of the recent movements. Other movements are in progress which will soon be publicly developed, forming part of the great plan looking to our success.

Burnside sent word to his friends in Washington that everything looked very favorable and hopeful.

LIVERPOOL, May 3.—Breadstuffs firm. provisions quiet and steady.

FROM BANKS' DEPARTMENT.

CAIRO, May 11.—The dispatch boat General Lyon, from below reports that on the 5th the transports City Belle, Emma and Warner, in passing a battery 12 miles below Alexandria were fired upon and destroyed. Gunboat Signal was also destroyed by a battery, and gunboat Covington set on fire to prevent her falling into the hands of the enemy. This battery was captured from Banks. Banks remains at Alexandria and is strong enough to resist any attack made upon him.

During the fight above Alexandria, when the gunboat Juliet was destroyed, the Cricket, Admiral Porter's boat, suffered severely.

Forrest, Chalmers, Roddy and Lee are said to be a Tulpetoco, where they were to have a grand review on Saturday last.

An escaped federal cavalry officer reports a federal success at Jackson and Bolivar, Tenn.

The steamer Belle Memphis, arrived from Memphis with 104 bales of cotton. Gen. Steele's forces are actually engaged in fortifying the town of Little Rock.

All quiet on the Arkansas river.

It is said rebels did not carry out the system of slaughtering colored troops at the battle at Sabine River, but took many wounded, dressed their wounds and sent a flag of truce to Steele for their exchange. The reason assigned for this is that negroes during the whole of Steele's campaign took no prisoners.

A rebel force is said to be in the immediate vicinity of Pine Bluff.

ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

Tribune's special of the 11th says Burnside advanced to Spottsylvania Court House that morning, driving Hill's corps before him, and now held the place. Dale's rebel brigade, 2,400 strong was captured by the charge of a Vermont brigade on Sunday night, but nearly half escaped.

NEW YORK, May 12.—Herald's special. The most determined and persistent effort which has been made since the commencement of the war, was made in a fight in this locality to turn our right. Charge after charge was made by the enemy on our right in four columns. Our men repulsed each charge. At length the 5th corps drove the enemy, compelling him to fall back into his third line of defenses.

The effect of this repulse was appalling. The rebel dead at points lay piled up in heaps. In one of those gallant charges fell the brave General Rice at the head of his column, as he has been in every fight. Busy in the midst of the terrible conflict was Gen. Warren. He rode up and down his lines, directing the movements, regardless of the storm of shells and bullets, and another horse is shot under him—the third within the last four days.

We made a general assault at 7 o'clock. It was the most terrible and magnificent one of the war. Batteries through the cutting down some trees, were placed in very advantageous positions, as were likewise batteries of other corps. Simultaneously their cannon hurled murderous missiles into the ranks of the enemy, accompanied by a general volley of musketry, and from then until dark the combat deepened. Night left us victorious on every side. Our lines were now advanced and we had taken more prisoners than we had lost, but it has been another expensive victory, our losses heavy, but it is believed that of the enemy far exceeds ours. It is expected that the battle will be resumed in the morning. Our men are in good spirits and there is no giving away to them.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—Time's special.—A distinguished officer who left Grant in the saddle as late as 10 o'clock this morning, sums up the bloody work of yesterday thus:

The fight opened all along the lines. Longstreet's corps under Hill held the rebel right resting within about 2 miles of Spottsylvania and Grant posted Burnside's 9th corps against it. At a given moment in the afternoon the latter precipitated his entire command except the colored troops, on the rebel right, driving and crushing it, capturing 3 rebel brigades and 4 pieces of cannon. The battle continued with varying success till after dark. The losses on both sides stated to be very large. Of the rebel brigades captured some escaped during the awful carnage which followed. But 1200 of the captured were sent to the rear this A. M. Our informant talked with some of them before leaving to-day, and they acknowledged they had been in every principal battle of the war but never experienced such terrible fighting. Battle ceased about dark our line having advanced, Burnside's occupying at the end of the conflict the entrenchments held by Longstreet's forces at the beginning.

This morning the fight was renewed up to 10 o'clock, to which Burnside held the same position. Lee's army was then contracted into a sort of horse-shoe in form, in and about the town of Spottsylvania Court House. Gen. Stevenson is killed.

Butler's movements south of Richmond have been felt and appreciated.

FROM TUNNELL HILL.

TUNNEL HILL, Ga., 11th.—After three days heavy skirmishing in which all the corps participated, the enemy were driven back to Rocky Ridge and Buzzard's Roost mountain, from which we are fast expelling them. Everything is going on in a most satisfactory manner.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

A Cheerful Copperhead.

The most cheerful number of the Chicago Times that we have read in a long time, was the issue of yesterday morning, which contained an editorial summary of Gen. Lee's brilliant maneuvering during the battle on Friday, when the rebels doubled up our flanks, like a piece of wet rag, and got possession of Germania Ford. Then it related how splendidly Lee withdrew his forces on Friday night, taking his position upon the assumption that Grant, like Hooker at Chancellorsville, would try to get away, all of which excited the most profound admiration of the secesh Times. And then the idea that Lee had retreated in good order to Spottsylvania Court House, a naturally strong position, and would there give Grant battle, was told with extreme unction; and if the news of Grant's utter defeat and overthrow, should reach Chicago to-night, there isn't a doubt but that the Times would place its biggest rooster at the head of its columns!

But why should'nt it? Hasn't a man the right to rejoice over the victory of his own friends?

ANOTHER AFFRAY IN EGYPT.—Another desperate and bloody affray between soldiers and sympathizers with treason has occured in the southern part of the State. On Friday night last a squad of fifteen soldiers of an Illinois regiment proceeded to a place four miles south of Xenia, for the purpose of arresting some deserters of their regiment. At a lonely spot on the road, the little band was ambushed by the cowardly friends of the deserters, in overwhelming numbers. Over half of the soldiers were shot, some fatally, and the remainder were obliged to return to Xenia. The greatest excitement, consequent upon the affair, prevails in that section of the country.

THE pretty rebel spy named Emma Jones, who was sent North some time ago, has been banished by Governor Andrew to Barnstable, Mass., to stop during the summer. She is a native of Massachusetts, but confesses her attachment to southern institutions, although declaring she never was a spy.

THE COL. Woodward, son of Judge Woodward of Pa., reported killed in the recent engagement near Chancellorsville, was formerly a resident of Milwaukee, (George Woodward) and well known to many of her citizens, having held the office of city attorney of that city, some five or six years ago.

THE TERROR of the North Carolina waters, the new and formidable rebel ram, which helped to capture our garrison at Plymouth—is disposed of. She was attacked and sunk in Albemarle Sound by a United States war steamer.

CONCERT OF THE MUSICAL UNION.—Lappin's Hall was well filled last evening, in attendance upon the concert of the Musical Union of this city. We propose to give a somewhat lengthy notice of the entertainment to-morrow.

RICHLAND COUNTY has a full company for 100 days service. This county at the last Presidential election cast somewhat over 1,900 votes and has already sent some 1,500 of her brave sons to the war.

THE FORT Atkinson Chief says forty-nine members of Oakland Lodge, I. O. of G. T., have enlisted since the war commenced. Nine of them have gone to their rest.

THE THIRD CAVALRY.—We learn that the 3d cavalry are expected to reach this city about 7 o'clock this evening.

GEN. STEELE commander of the Arkansas expedition is a brother of congressman Steele of the Ulster (N. Y.) district.

MR ROBERT CLARK, deputy-warden in the Illinois penitentiary, was killed by a convict last week.

SEVERAL HORSE-THIEVES have been captured and hanged in Southwestern Missouri. The home militia hunted them.

A GREAT religious revival is in progress in Williams College.

INDIANA DIVORCES are not binding in Ohio. So decided by the Courts.

THE INDIANS RETURNED.—The Chippewa delegation of Chiefs and Interpreters arrived from their visit to Washington yesterday, by the Northern Belle, in charge of A. B. Ramsey. They all look much cleaner, fatter and better than before they went on, and have no doubt enjoyed themselves hugely. Mr. Hole-in-the-day and Look Around are not with the party. They were both too badly wounded in their late rencounter to come in with the rest. Mr. Wykoff is left in charge of them.—St. Paul Press.

FATE OF THE CHURCHES.—The Rev. T. Cuyler, writing from Culpepper Va., April 28th says:

I am ensconced to-day in the gallery of a deserted Episcopal church in the ancient aristocratic Culpepper. Down in the broken pews on the lower floor, the Pendletons, Hills, and Mercers, and their patricians, have "said or sung" the English liturgy for a generation or more. Immediately under the church window lie the family of General A. P. Hill, who was born in yonder old brick house on the corner. The tents of our men stand close up to the graves of the proud old aristocracy of the days of Madison! A few rods off is the Methodist church, now used as a cavalry stable.

E. C. INGERSOLL, of Peoria, has been elected as the successor of Owen Lovejoy in Congress, by a majority of nearly 5,000. Lovejoy's majority in the last election was scarcely so many hundreds.

VOLUME 8. JANESVILLE, WIS., THURSDAY, MAY 12, 1864. NUMBER 63.

THE BLUE BOOK.—The Biennial Register or Blue Book is out. It contains 824 pages in very small, closely-printed type. It purports to give the officers and agents, civil, military and navel, in the service of the United States on the 30th of September, 1863; and also shows the State or Territory from which each person was appointed; the State or country in which he was born, and the compensation, pay and emolument of each. The organization of 19 regiments of regulars is given. Of volunteer officers, there are 67 major-generals, of whom Gen. Butler is at the head; 256 brigadier-generals; 417 assistan quartermasters; 370 commissaries of subsistence, and 328 paymasters. The names of regimental officers in the volunteer service are not given. The blue book—always valuable—is especially useful at this time. Washington Letter.

ARMY EQUIPAGES.—A Washington dispatch to the Springfield Republican says an order just issued from the War Department, prohibits the use by general and other officers in the coming campaign, of the luxurious four-horse field carriages furnished by the quartermaster's department at the expense of the government, and constituting a feature peculiar to the army of the Potomac. Gen. Grant riding in the rain to the front the other day on horseback in his usual plain way, met Gen. Ingalls coming into town in one of these Asiatic equipages, and it is said they were mutually surprised.

GEN. GRANT has presented to Brigadier General John A. Rawlings, his chief of staff, a handsome silk sash, upon which, in indelible ink, is the following inscription, the signature of which is in General Grant's own handwriting:

"This sash, worn by me through all my battles and campaigns, from and including the surrender of Vicksburg, July, 4th, 1863, is presented to Brigadier General John A. Rowlings, my chief of staff, in evidence of my appreciation as an officer and friend. U. S. GRANT,
Lieutenant General U. S. Army."

BOTH HOUSES of Congress have voted to pay colored soldiers $13 per month.

I am to-day in receipt of the amount of my claim $9,500 sixty days before the same was due, according to the terms of the policy, which is satisfactory evidence in my mind that the PHŒNIX is the Company to do business with.

ON BOARD STEAMER CONTINENTAL,

Editors Gazette:—Will you insert the following remarks made upon the occasion of the presentation of a Saber, Belt and Sash, by Sergt. Perry L. Brooks, in behalf of the Veterans of Co. M, 2d Wis. Cav. to their First Lieut. F. A. Kimball, a resident of your town. It will show to his friends and acquaintances how the Old Soldiers appreciate him as an officer and a man:

LIEUT. KIMBALL:—In behalf of the undersigned veterans of Co. M 2d Wis. Cav., I present you this Saber, Sash and Belt, as a slight testimonial of our confidence in your ability as an officer, in your patriotism and devotion to your country, and appreciation of your labors for the restoration of its wonted peace, prosperity and happiness. For more than two years we have followed you through the trials, hardships and dangers incident to war, and have always found you true to the interests of your country and the men of your company, and in presenting these things to you we do not expect to convey to you a full expression of our appreciation of your true worth and our unbounded confidence in you as an officer.

Take these, and when you lead in battle for our company and the cause of humanity, we will follow, pledged never to sheath the sword until the Union is restored, and liberty, equal rights and justice are established upon a basis as broad as our whole country.

Hospital Steward—Paul G. Strong.

Sergeants—Perry L. Brooks, Geo. W. Walter, Wm. Rhinehart, Peter J. Wright, Clark O. Popple.

LIEUT. KIMBALL'S REPLY.

VETERANS OF CO. M:—Words would fail me to express to you my feelings upon this occation. Acts only can give full expression to my heartfelt thanks and gratitude to you for your uniform kindness and many evidences of good wishes toward me.

Two years and a half since, you, as new recruits, designated me as your choice to fill the position which I now hold. The compliment was a truly gratifying one, though then neither you nor myself fully realized what would be required of me in that position. We were entering upon a new business. I accepted the position, mentally pledged myself to endeavor to the best of my ability, never to disappoint your expectations; how well I have succeeded you know best.

If, then, that first expression of your confidence and respect was gratifying to me, how much more so should be this new evidence to me that I have not wholly failed to preserve them; the evidence coming now as it does, from you as Veterats, men with whom I have shared the exposures, privations and danger of two years service in the field, men who know what they have a right to expect from their officers.

These things, in themselves, are worthless to me—mere baubles—yet for what they assure me of are of inestimable value, and as we are now returning to our duties in the field, after a short respite from them, in which we have had an opportunity of again mingling in the society of our families and friends, some of us perhaps for the last time, I shall leave these with my family to remind them that tho' surrounded by foes, I am yet among friends; leave this with them, so that if in the day of battle it should be my lot to fall, they may ever be to them, though silent, yet eloquent and impressive, telling them the sacrifice was made for God, for Liberty, for our Country; of your confidence in and respect for him whom they loved best, which may in some degree console them in their afflictions.

Again I thank you, and again pledge myself to strive to retain your respect and esteem; to endeavor by acts, not words, to show you my appreciation of your good will toward me, and of your characters as men and soldiers; praying that the time may speedily come when this wicked rebellion shall be crushed, treason driven from our country at the point of the bayonets in the hands of her loyal sons, peace restored, liberty guaranteed to every man, the principles of right and justice pervading our land; that those of us who escape the perils of the contest may—our occupation being gone—be permitted to exchange these weapons for the implements of the peaceful pursuits of civil life; exchange the society of the camp for that of our families and friends, and that peace and prosperity may endure to the end

[Special Dispatch to the Gazette.]

CAIRO, May 11th.—Major General C. R. S. Canby, accompanied by his staff, arrived here this morning and left for below on the dispatch boat F. S. Wilson, en route to take command of our forces west of the Mississippi river.

ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

[Special Dispatch to the Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, May 11th.—It is reported that last night our headquarters were two miles in advance of Spottsylvania Court House. A general advance was ordered for five o'clock yesterday (Tuesday) evening, and the firing from that hour to sundown is said to have been very heavy.

It is stated that Grant has captured a large amount of commissary stores.

We are informed by private advices received last evening, that General Grant is meeting with success, and that everything promises well.

Gold declined yesterday afternoon from 76c to 73c.

LATER.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—Accounts from the Army of the Potomac concur that there was heavy fighting yesterday. About five in the afternoon an attack was made upon the rebel batteries, and it is stated that after the assault was continued for some time, it was found the rebel batteries could not be carried without great sacrifice of life. The effort for a time was abandoned.

It is currently reported here this morning that Gen. Warren was wounded on yesterday, and died on the way to Fredericksburg.

The fighting yesterday afternoon is said to have been severe, as heavy artillery was brought into action by both sides. The result as far as is known was to our advantage.

The fighting was renewed to-day.

M.

ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

NEW YORK, May 12.—Herald's special.—Tuesday Gibbons' and Barlow's divisions were withdrawn from the south bank of the Po. The latter's division was closely followed by the enemy, who were checked by our artillery posted along the ridge commanding the river.

Early in the day the whole army began to straighten out in line of battle for a renewal of the engagement. Skirmishing was kept up during this time between the advanced lines of the two armies. The enemy was bestirring himself as though he intended offensive operations. Our line formed with 2d corps on the right, 5th in the centre and 6th on the left, with Burnside's corps in the rear of our left, for the protection of our immense trains and to act as a reserve in any emergency.

The country here is quite rolling, studded with groves of pine and hard wood, and affording much better facilities for handling troops and the use of artillery than about the wilderness.

The enemy during the night strengthened their formidable position with rifepits, breastworks, barricades, &c., rendering stronger than any line of defense occupied since leaving the earthworks on the Rapidan.

Thus matters stood until far into the afternoon, when the fighting became quite sharp at intervals at different points, but without anything definite. Five o'clock was fixed for the grand assault. General orders announcing our success under Sherman in the West and Butler on James River read to the troops producing the wildest excitement. As the hour approached for the attack the enthusiasm of the troops became almost ungovernable. Grant surrounded by his staff, Meade, Hancock and Warren all stationed on eminences within sight of each other, while from all parts columns of our army slowly gathered themselves together for the grand struggle. Just as the attack was about to be made the enemy advanced on our right threatening to press back that portion of our line, discontinuing for the time the plan of assault. Our troops were hurried to the support of the right, but Barlow succeeded in checking the rebels, sending back his reinforcements with word that he had men enough and to spare. Half past six was then fixed upon for assault, watches compared by corps commanders, and finally all seperated with orders to attack at the appointed time. At the appointed hour, simultaneously with the roar of the twelve signal guns, the whole front advanced with cheers from the whole line. The movement was indiscribably grand. A portion of our forces moved in solid column, while others advanced in the usual order of battle, the whole army moving together and yet each command fighting its own battle The whole rebel line opened a most murderous fire, against which our lines irresistibly swept, driving the enemy slowly back from his position, capturing nearly 2000 prisoners and three pieces of artillery, the latter however were retaken by rebels before the close of the engagement. Night closed the battle with our forces occupying the field. Loss heavy, but judging from the killed and wounded left in our hands, much less than the enemy's, who fought to the last, our troops bayoneting their men in rifle-pits and forcing them by hand to hand conflicts to yield. General Rice was mortally wounded and died under amputation of his leg. Our loss of prominent officers is great, but the lateness of the hour and my own wound prevents the collection of names. The engagement rendered vigorously and at the time of my departure was progressing favorably.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, May 11.—My despatch yesterday afternoon left our army in the midst of a terrible battle—terrible for the time it lasted as any in the recent series of fights.—Heretofore the contests have been invariably musketry firing, in this battle the roll of artillery firing has been incessant and almost as deafening as at Gettysburg. The battle continued till night and darkness closed the sanguinary struggle, and our army added another to its list of victories.

In the morning a change was made in the disposition of our lines. Meantime our men greatly strengthened their earthworks, throwning up additional abattis and everything evinced a determination to make it a day of decisive results. Very active skirmishing all the forepart of the day, merged at length into a general engagement. As the hours wore on the contest waxed hotter and hotter, and fiercer and sharper was the rattle of musketry and louder the roar of artillery.

WASHINGTON, May 11.

During the last 24 hours, about 7,000 men from the Army of the Potomac, wounded in the battles of Thursday and Friday, arrived here, comparatively few of them suffering severely from injuries, and many will soon be returned to the Army.

FROM WASHINGTON.

EXECUTIVE MANSION,
WASHINGTON May 9, 1864.

TO THE FRIENDS OF UNION AND LIBERTY:

Enough is known of army operations within the last five days to claim our especial gratitude to God; while what remains undone demands our most sincere prayers to, and reliance upon Him, without whom all human efforts is vain. I recommend that all patriots at their houses in their places of public worship, and wherever they may be, unite in common prayer and thanksgiving to Almighty God.

[Signed] ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—Gen. Wadsworth had two horses killed under him, and fell mortally wounded from the third, at 1 o'clock Friday. Gen. Grant said that he would rather have lost an entire infantry brigade than this wise and brave man.

By a Richmond paper found on a prisoner, it is stated that the body of Gen. Wadsworth was buried at the Wilderness. This would seem to determine the certainty of his death.

It is also stated that Butler was within 13 miles of Richmond.

Gen. Morris, of the 6th corps, who was standing beside Gen. Sedgwick when killed, was wounded in the leg, but not seriously.

Our army is pressing Lee's retreating forces from all sides, while our cavalry under Sheridan have been and are performing prodigies of valor.

Our troops sustain their hard marching with wonderful endurance and in good spirits.

For a long time after our Wilderness fight it was difficult to make many of the men believe that our movement was not a retreat. But when ascertaining beyond a question that we were advancing, their enthusiasm knew no bounds, and they made the woods ring with hoozas for Grant, Meade Burnside and everybody.

Our wounded have suffered severely, and but for the humane and tender regard for their condition we should undoubtedly ere this be upon the South bank of the Anna, forward still.

FROM BUFFALO.

BUFFALO, May 12.—No confirmation has been received here of the rumor that Sigel had formed a junction with Grant.

GOOD NEWS FROM GEORGIA.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—Gentlemen prominently connected with the government are to-day in good spirits in view of the recent movements. Other movements are in progress which will soon be publicly developed, forming part of the great plan looking to our success.

Burnside sent word to his friends in Washington that everything looked very favorable and hopeful.

LIVERPOOL, May 3.—Breadstuffs firm. provisions quiet and steady.

FROM BANKS' DEPARTMENT.

CAIRO, May 11.—The dispatch boat General Lyon, from below reports that on the 5th the transports City Belle, Emma and Warner, in passing a battery 12 miles below Alexandria were fired upon and destroyed. Gunboat Signal was also destroyed by a battery, and gunboat Covington set on fire to prevent her falling into the hands of the enemy. This battery was captured from Banks. Banks remains at Alexandria and is strong enough to resist any attack made upon him.

During the fight above Alexandria when the gunboat Juliet was destroyed, the Cricket, Admiral Porter's boat, suffered severely.

Forrest, Chalmers, Roddy and Lee are said to be a Tulpetoco, where they were to have a grand review on Saturday last.

An escaped federal cavalry officer reports a federal success at Jackson and Bolivar, Tenn.

The steamer Belle Memphis, arrived from Memphis with 104 bales of cotton. Gen. Steele's forces are actually engaged in fortifying the town of Little Rock.

All quiet on the Arkansas river.

It is said rebels did not carry out the system of slaughtering colored troops at the battle at Sabine River, but took many wounded, dressed their wounds and sent a flag of truce to Steele for their exchange. The reason assigned for this is that negroes during the whole of Steele's campaign took no prisoners.

A rebel force is said to be in the immediate vicinity of Pine Bluff.

ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

Tribune's special of the 11th says Burnside advanced to Spottsylvania Court House that morning, driving Hill's corps before him, and now held the place. Dale's rebel brigade, 2,400 strong was captured by the charge of a Vermont brigade on Sunday night, but nearly half escaped.

NEW YORK, May 12.—Herald's special. The most determined and persistent effort which has been made since the commencement of the war, was made in a fight in this locality to turn our right. Charge after charge was made by the enemy on our right in four columns. Our men repulsed each charge. At length the 6th corps drove the enemy, compelling him to fall back into his third line of defenses.

The effect of this repulse was appalling. The rebel dead at points lay piled up in heaps. In one of those gallant charges fell the brave General Rice at the head of his column, as he has been in every fight. Busy in the midst of the terrible conflict was Gen. Warren. He rode up and down his lines, directing the movements, regardless of the storm of shells and bullets, and another horse is shot under him—the third within the last four days.

We made a general assault at 7 o'clock. It was the most terrible and magnificent one of the war. Batteries through the cutting down some trees, were placed in very advantageous positions, as were likewise batteries of other corps. Simultaneously their cannon hurled murderous missiles into the ranks of the enemy, accompanied by a general volley of musketry, and from then until dark the combat deepened. Night left us victorious on every side. Our lines were now advanced and we had taken more prisoners than we had lost, but it has been another expensive victory, our losses heavy, but it is believed that of the enemy far exceeds ours. It is expected that the battle will be resumed in the morning. Our men are in good spirits and there is no giving away to them.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—Time's special.—A distinguished officer who left Grant in the saddle as late as 10 o'clock this morning, sums up the bloody work of yesterday thus:

The fight opened all along the lines. Longstreet's corps under Hill held the rebel right resting within about 2 miles of Spottsylvania and Grant posted Burnside's 9th corps against it. At a given moment in the afternoon the latter precipitated his entire command except the colored troops, on the rebel right, driving and crushing it, capturing 3 rebel brigades and 4 pieces of cannon. The battle continued with varying success till after dark. The losses on both sides stated to be very large. Of the rebel brigades captured some escaped during the awful carnage which followed. But 1200 of the captured were sent to the rear this A. M. Our informant talked with some of them before leaving to-day, and they acknowledged they had been in every principal battle of the war but never experienced such terrible fighting. Battle ceased about dark, our line having advanced, Burnside's occupying at the end of the conflict the entrenchments held by Longstreet's forces at the beginning.

This morning the fight was renewed up to 10 o'clock, to which Burnside held the same position. Lee's army was then contracted into a sort of horse-shoe in form, in and about the town of Spottsylvania Court House. Gen. Stevenson is killed.

Butler's movements south of Richmond have been felt and appreciated.

TUNNEL HILL, Ga., 11th.—After three days heavy skirmishing in which all the corps participated, the enemy were driven back to Rocky Ridge and Buzzard's Roost mountain, from which we are fast expelling them. Everything is going on in a most satisfactory manner.

Governor Lewis and the Draft.

The Milwaukee Sentinel has "authority" for saying that the quota of Wisconsin is now full, but that the Governor is authorized to order the draft to take place in the delinquent portions of the State if he sees proper, and that such drafted men will be credited to the State upon the next call for troops. That another call will be made we have every reason to believe.

If this statement of the Sentinel be true, the people in those portions of the State which have furnished not only their own number of men, but have filled up the deficiency in the delinquent districts, also will watch the Governor's action in this matter with a deep interest. Will he promptly order the draft to take place in those districts that have failed to respond to the call of their country as they ought, or will he play into the hands of these sneaks and let the loyal and the patriotic bear all the heat and burden of this trying hour? That is what the people want to know.

If it be said that the quota of the State being full, such action on the part of the Governor would work an injustice to Wisconsin, by taking off men needed for laborers, it may be replied that it is no more of a drain upon the industrial forces of the State to draft two thousand men, than it is for two thousand men to volunteer, or for five thousand men to go for 100 days service; and we very much doubt if those districts that are yet deficient on their former quotas are now suffering from this three month's service to any alarming extent. The track is tolerably fresh south of the Rapidan, and they are not the kind of men to go into this Abolition war, as they call it, unless they are encouraged by Uncle Sam's draft.

We much mistake the Governor's fidelity to the people of the whole State, as well as his natural sense of justice, not to mention the higher and more sacred duty of aiding his Government in this most trying hour—if he does not order the draft to take place at once in all delinquent districts, provided the matter has been left to his decision by the military authorities at Washington.

Then the Milwaukee News, that has taken especial pains to severely criticise the action of the Governor for calling out volunteers for one hundred drys, can turn its attention to filling up the quota of its own city, and thus put the necessity of any more volunteers entirely out of the question.

Letter from Virginia.

CAMP HAMILTON, Va., May 3d.

DEAR BROTHER:—You have observed the preparation being made in this department for an advance on Richmond. The movement is about to begin. Troops are embarking at this place, and at Yorktown. The artillery of our division got aboard this evening. To-morrow morning the infantry embark. We are almost as much in the dark as to our destination, where the first blow will be struck, as you are. I feel pretty certain that we will try our fortune against Fort Darling. How large the column will be which will operate on the right bank of the James, I am unable to conjecture. I am inclined to think that the movement on Richmond will be made in triple column, but I can scarcely appreciate the strategy, unless it be a feint, which places a column on the right bank of the James, with two rivers in the rear, and one between it and the column on the peninsula. Conjecture however is useless. It is enough that a campaign is about to open which vastly exceeds in every respect any yet undertaken during the war, and that our division (colored) is set down for a conspicuous part in this campaign.

In order that you may keep sight of us, I will give you our organization as far as I am acquainted with it. Our division, composed entirely of U. S. colored troops, consists of two brigades of infantry, two regiments of cavalry, and two newly organized batteries. Gen. E. W. Hinks of Massachusets, commands the division, Gen. Wilde commands one brigade of infantry, composed of the second, tenth and twenty-second regiments, commanded respectively by Colonel Holeman, Lieutenant Colonel Chamberlain and Col. Kiddoo.

Col. S. A. Duncan commanded the other brigade, composed of the fourth, fifth and sixth regiments, commanded respectively by myself, Col. Carwine and Col. Amer. Col. Garrard commanded one regiment of cavalry. I don't know the commander of the other. Captain Choate commanded one of the batteries, and the commander of the other battery is also unknown to me.

The prisoners we may take are to be kept seperate from others, and placed to our credit to receive the same treatment of ours in the hands of the rebels, or rather, are to be shot and hung for mistreatment visited on our command by the enemy.

I presume the two corps of this department about to engage in the campaign number nearly sixty thousand men. Within four days there will be hard fighting. I shall write you again as soon as I have time after something has been done, after we have been engaged. Birney Cooper and Marsh Beane are here engaged with Bill Cooper. They will remain behind for the present, but will be near enough to render me assistance, should any be needed, if I fall in the fight.

I should have mentioned that Smith's army moves with one wagon only to a regiment. The tents of a regiment consisting of shelter tents, and the Fly of one Wall tent for the Headquarters of the regiment.

Yours affectionately,

GEO. ROGERS.

LAST NIGHT two ladies went into the minstrels' performance, and walked coolly down the aisle, and ordered a couple of persons "to sit along," as they wanted a seat. One of them had a Spanish dagger visible, the handle sticking out from her breast, and the other a revolver in her belt. They were given seats in a hurry. —La Crosse Democrat.

SPEECH OF SENATOR DOOLITTLE.

The PRESIDING OFFICER.—The special order of the day is before the Senate, being the motion of the Senator from Minnesota [Mr. Wilkinson] that the Senate further insist upon its amendments to the bill (H. R. No. 15) to provide a temporary government for the Territory of Montana, and agree to the conference asked for by the House of Representatives on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses.

Mr. Doolittle. Mr. President, I certainly do not object to a free conference upon the disagreeing votes between the two Houses. This bill originated in the House of Representatives. It came from the Committee on Territories, of which Mr. Ashley, a distinguished gentleman from the State of Ohio, is chairman—a gentleman no less distinguished for his great legal ability than for his earnest and untiring devotion to the cause of human liberty and the preservation of the Union. The bill, in accordance with all precedent from the beginning of the Government down to the present hour, limited the right of suffrage to white men; to men of the Caucassian race. In this form the bill passed the House of Representatives without division. It may be said to have received the unanimous sanction of that body. It came to the Senate; was referred to the Committee on Territories, over which the distinguished Senator from Ohio presides, than whom there is no man in this body, in the other House, or in the whole country more devoted to the cause of liberty and to defend the rights of the oppressed African race. I refer to Senator Wade from Ohio. From that committee the bill was reported to this body without any amendment. It was called up to be put on its passage; was just ready to pass; and, doubtless, would have received the unanimous vote of the Senate but for the fact that my honorable friend from Minnesota [Mr. Wilkinson] deemed it his duty, upon his responsibility as a Senator, to introduce and carry through the Senate an amendment which it is claimed will extend the right of suffrage to colored men of African and perhaps also of Indian descent. The House of Representatives has disagreed; still insists upon its disagreement; and now asks the Senate to appoint a committee of free conference on the subject.

For myself, so far as this Territory of Montana is concerned, I care but very little in which form the bill shall pass, whether in the form proposed by the Senator from Minnesota or in the form proposed by the Committee on Territories of the House, sanctioned by that House and sanctioned by the committee of this body; but, sir, that against which I enter my most earnest protest is the raising of this new issue, in form or in substance, out of this controversy between the two Houses; against throwing that issue, at this time and in the present state of the country, as a new element to inflame and imbitter the great controversy to come off in the ensuing presidential election; I mean the issue of negro suffrage. Although perhaps in the form of the words employed this issue is not necessarily involved, yet it is so generally understood throughout the country by the press and by the people.

From my friendship and my high respect for the honorable member from Minnesota, I have every reason to know that he was actuated only by the highest and most patriotic considerations; but with all my respect for him I must be permitted to say that, in my judgment, he has raised an issue unnecessary—an issue which, if it be persisted in, will of necessity be involved in and would control the result of the coming presidential contest. I say this issue is altogether unnecessary. So far as it attempts to establish negro suffrage in the Territory of Montana, it is wholly impracticable; for I now repeat what I said the other day, there is not one single person of African descent known to be within that Territory. I know my friend from Minnesota, on information received from a gentleman by the name of Langford, long a resident of that Territory, said there was one person of African decent there, and he was worth $50,000. Mr. Langford happened to be in the gallery when that statement was made by the honorable Senator from Minnesota. He at once sent his card to an honorable member upon this floor, sought an introduction, and informed him that there was, it is true, at one time one person of African descent in that Territory, and he was the fortunate discoverer of a mine estimated by some to be worth $50,000; but that he is dead, and now there is not one single person of African descent in the proposed Territory of Montana. I repeat, therefore, so far as concerns the extension of suffrage to persons of African descent, this proposition is the merest abstraction in the world.

But there are other persons in that Territory, other colored men, men of Indian descent, who, under this amendment of the Senator from Minnesota might, I do not say they practically would, but might be embraced within its provisions. There are, perhaps, five thousand persons of Indian descent within this proposed Territory. Under the provisions of the Senate amendment it might occur that these Indians would declare intention to become citizens of the United States, and thereby become entitled to the right of suffrage within this Territory. I do not say I think they would, or that it is probable they would, but they might.

Mr. Wilkinson. With the Senator's permission, I wish to ask him if Indians can become citizens of the United States under our naturalization laws by complying with the provisions, by declaring their intention and taking the oath, &c.

Mr. Doolittle. That is a disputed question of law, upon which persons take different sides, as they do about the Chinese, the Malays, and all the red and yellow races; Chancellor Kent, if I recollect aright, taking the ground that they are not capable of becoming naturalized. I will not enter into its discussion now. But this thing, which although not probable, is nevertheless, possible, might actually take place within this Territory. The history of what occurred in the State of Minnesota, in one of its far-off election districts, at Pembina, ought to warn us of what might possibly occur, under the lead of designing demagogues, who, to carry an election, use any means, right or wrong, in their power. By the constitution of Minnesota, while negroes and persons of African descent are excluded from the right of suffrage, Indians who have adopted the habits of civilized life are permitted to exercise that right. At the first election in that new State, at the Pembina district, it is said not only Indians who had adopted the habits of civilized life, but wild blanket Indians of the woods, were led to the polls, to exercise the right of suffrage under the manipulation of these demagogues. It was a very simple operation for those designing men, with a few suits of clothes, hats, coats, and pants, and plenty of whisky and tobacco, to strip the wild Indian of his blanket, clothe him in the habilliments and addict him to some of the habits of civilized life, and to bring him thus arrayed and addicted forward to the polls to deposit his ballot, to return again to the woods to exchange his civilized costume for the savage costume of another wild Indian, to be led to the polls to repeat the same operation.

Now, I do not undertake to say that in my opinion such a thing would occur in the Territory of Montana; but inasmuch as it did once occur in the State of Minnesota, I say that it might occur even in the Territory of Montana if there was a fiercely contested election in which great interest was felt by those who without scruple sometimes undertake to carry an election by any means, fair or foul.

So far, then, as this amendment of the Senate extends any right of suffrage to persons of African descent in the Territory of Montana, it is a mere abstraction, and in whichever form the bill shall pass it will have no effect whatever in the Territory. The question then perhaps may be asked, "Why do you oppose the assertion of an abstraction, or the raising of an abstract issue, which can have no application?" I answer, because all history teaches that upon mere abstractions, which have no practical application, sometimes the fiercest and most bitter controversies arise, whether in the religious, the political, or even in the scientific world. Who has forgotten that it was the assertion of an abstraction in the change of the sound of a single vowel in one Greek word, whether it whould be pronounced "Homoousion" or "Homoiousion," the shade of difference between just alike and almost alike, that divided the religious world, produced a controversy for ages, and sometimes bathed its sacred altars in human blood? Who has forgotten that it was the assertion by Mr. Calhoun of the abstract proposition, "Slavery is a blessing," "Slavery is a divine institution," which has been the cause of this very war in which we are now engaged? Philosophically speaking, it was this dogma of his, asserted, presisted in, carried into and triumphing at last in the schools, the press, the legislative halls of the South, which made slavery aggressive, and at last forced upon Congress, upon the President, and upon the Supreme Court that policy and those measures which have launched us upon a sea of troubles and plunged our beloved country into this terrible struggle of blood, agony, and tears.

Following his dogma came the assertion in the Dred Scott decision of the abstract right to take slaves into all the Territories of the Union. The assertion of the same abstract right to take slaves into the Territory repealed the Missouri compromise, the blow which opened this civil strife, in my judgment, the immediate cause of this war, the fatal tempter which, entering into our peaceful paradise, brought "death and all our woe."

Mr. President, you will understand me. I do not propose to enter upon the discussion of the question of the propriety of negro suffrage; not at all. I propose to show that now is no time to raise that question or to discuss it. I will only say that, in my judgment, this question properly belongs to the States.

INSURE WITH THE MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF WISCONSIN—IT IS THE BEST COMPANY FOR WESTERN MEN!—The reasons why this is the best Company, are: That it is a Western Company, made up of and managed by Western men, doing all or nearly all its business in the Northwest, and concentrating in this one Company a superior class of risks, mostly of young men, or men in the prime of life, and they selected with as great care in regard to eligibility to Life Insurance, as are the risks of any other company.

It is true that the Company has neither the age nor the accumulations of some eastern companies, but is gaining the latter very fast; is vigorous for one of its age; is doing a large business, having issued 637 policies in the months of December and January just passed, and is doing its business as economically as the same can be done anywhere. It has for its guide, the experience of all older companies, and among its managers some of the best business men in the northwest.

This is the first successful effort ever made to build up a similar institution in the West, and it should be the pride, as it certainly is the interest, of every business man in this section of the State, to identify himself with its growth.

This Company issues non-forfeiting policies, upon which premiums are paid in five or ten annual payments. These non-forfeiting policies are very desirable, as they guarantee to the policy holder the benefit of all the money that he pays into the Company, and also enable him to pay his premiums for the whole of life while he is young, or at an early period, thus relieving him from the burden of payment in old age. Insurance upon this plan, (as well as on all other policies that this Company issues) become due and payable at death, should death occur before the ten years expire.

It also issues the endowment policy which becomes due and payable to the party assured at a stated age specified. These latter policies are becoming quite popular, and are particularly desirable for young men.

The Kind of Insurance Worth Having!

On the morning of the 23d of February, the brick block, occupied by the "Lafayette Journal Co.," in Lafayette, Ind., was burned to the ground. The PHŒNIX had a policy of $5,000 on the type, presses and machinery of the "Journal"—the proofs of the loss were handed in at the General Agency Office in Cincinnati on the 26th, and on the same day, Mr. Schuyler, representing the "Journal Co." received a draft for the full amount of his policy, as will be seen by the following receipt:

$5,000.

CINCINNATI, O., Feb. 26th, 1864.

Received of the PHŒNIX INSURANCE COMPANY, of Hartford, Connecticut, by H. M. Magill, General Agent of said Company, the sum of FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS, it being in full of all claims and demands for loss or damage under Policy No. 2,316, issued at the Lafayette, Ind., Agency of the said Company, the loss originating by destruction of Printing Stock, on Feb. 23d, 1864. W. H. SCHUYLER, for Lafayette Jour. Co.

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

Janesville Daily Gazette.

THURSDAY, MAY 12, 1864.

NEW LAW POINT.—In Springfield, Illinois, a suit has grown out of the dog-killing operations of the police, that presents a novel "law point." It is an action of trespass, and originated this wise; A son put his father's dog outside the paling, and told a policeman to shoot him, which was done. The father didn't relish the idea of having his dog killed by a policeman, and so brought suit against the son. A dogmatic old gentleman, indeed!

THE WASHINGTON correspondent of the Rochester Democrat, says:

"The army is provided with sixteen days' rations for men and animals. Gen. Grant will try to keep direct communication open with Washington; but does not rely upon or depend upon being able to do so during the next ten days."

ROCK CO., WISCONSIN, LANDS

FOR SALE BY AUCTION.

Will be sold by auction, on

Thursday the 23d of June Next,

in the city of Janesville, Rock county, Wisconsin, thirty-eight hundred and forty (3840) acres of the finest agricultural lands in the state. They are situated about ten miles from Janesville, and adjoining the village of Footville, with the Beloit & Madison Railroad running through them, and the Milwaukee & Southern Wisconsin Railroad on their border, and are composed of about an equal quantity of heavy "grove" timber and prairie. They were selected for their present owner for investment, nearly thirty years ago, as the best lands, in all respects, in Rock county, and this county, it is well known, is the garden of Wisconsin.
They will be sold in farm parcels, and the purchase money, less twenty or twenty-five per cent, which must be paid in cash, may remain on mortgage at seven per cent. interest, for seven or ten years, excepting timber lots which will be sold for cash.
There will also be sold at the same time and place, and in the same manner, but wholly for cash, twenty two hundred (2,200) acres of prime lands in Marathon county, near the town of Wausau, selected about eight years ago.
A more eligible opportunity for farmers to secure most desirable farms, or for the investment of capital, could not be offered.
For further particulars apply personally, or by letter to Mr. Dawson, No. 9 East 15th street, New York, who will be in Janesville ten days before the sale takes place; to J. J. R. Pease, Esq., counsellor at law, Janesville, or to Mr. John Howe, on the property, at Footville. 489my7dawGw

FARMERS, TAKE NOTICE!

The undersigned are having made at Beloit, Wis., one hundred of those Reapers known as the Cheap, or Webber Reaper!

Notwithstanding the increase of nearly double in price over other years of all materials put in Reapers, we are going to sell for 1861 at about the same prices as before. Our prices at the shop are $110 cash for single Reaper, for Reaper and Mower $140. We are making Fifty Mowers, which will be warranted to do good work. They will be made of steel bars of the Buckeye pattern, except the hinges.
Those buying Reapers alone can have Mowers the next year or the reaper for the same price, as the difference between reaper and mower.
We do not deem it necessary to extol our Reaper, for it is already known to be the only two-horse Reaper in use. Notwithstanding a great many are used with two horses, they ought to use three or four, and some of them six, to be as easy to the horse as ours are to two ordinary horses.
Please send in your orders early to be sure of a machine, as positively only one hundred of them will be built, and we will warrant each and every machine to

Work Well in all Kinds of Grain!

The Reels will be different from last year. They will be the over hanging reel, and have six bats instead of four keeping the reel, holding the grain to the sickle steady.
They will be shipped to any depot in Wisconsin or Illinois. Ten per cent. will be added if sold on time. One half the 1st of September, 1864, the balance the 1st of September, 1865.
Those buying machines will confer a favor by giving this machine publicity in their respective neighborhoods. When material gets to its usual stage we intend to make it a ninety dollar machine, and should have done it but for the unprecedented high prices of everything to construct machines with.

The Reaper Shop at Afton!

will attend strictly to the repairing of the Webber Reaper. None others wanted. We are prepared to change from chain to belt, put on castor wheels upon short notice. Men will be on hand to repair promptly. Charges light as the cost of material will admit. We shall manufacture none at that place, consequently we will be prepared to repair. Work solicited. All orders should be directed to in all its branches. He will not only makes teeth to order for his patients, but intends to keep on hand a large assortment of teeth for Dentists. He makes teeth so cheap that none need go without them. Every variety of style, from five to sixty dollars per set, and imitates nature with such precision that they cannot be distinguished from the natural teeth, with one exception, that is, they never ache! He puts no nerves in them!

Teeth Extracted Without Pain.

Dr. Burrus has also just procured a quantity of pure, Hydric Aether, which has been pronounced by all the Dental and Medical Journals, as well as by the ablest of the medical profession, to be the best and safest of all the anesthetic agents yet known for the purpose of extracting teeth. He has a new mode of administering this agent, a new apparatus for the express purpose. It is preferable to and less dangerous, though analagous, to the

Nitrous Oxide Gas, (Laughing Gas.)

This gas has been before the public over half a century, and proved to be dangerous and uncertain in its action.

Dr. Teft's Local Anasthecia.

Dr. Burrus uses this agent for all who desire it. A small piece of cotton wet with this agent put around the neck of the tooth soon removes all sensibility in the parts. It is not dangerous under any circumstances.

[Translated from the French.]

After having played on the Piano of Messrs. Knabe & Co., it is impossible not to bear testimony to their qualities, which have acquired for them the eminent reputation which they enjoy. The Pianos of their manufacture, on which I have played, are exceedingly remarkable for their qualities. The bass is powerful without harshness, and the upper notes sweet, clear and harmoniously mellow, (chrystaline,) and I do not hesitate to express in regard to these instruments my entire satisfaction, and to declare that they are equal if not superior to the best manufactured in Europe or this country by the most celebrated makers.

Governor Lewis and the Draft.

The Milwaukee Sentinel has "authority" for saying that the quota of Wisconsin is now full, but that the Governor is authorized to order the draft to take place in the delinquent portions of the State if he sees proper, and that such drafted men will be credited to the State upon the next call for troops. That another call will be made we have every reason to believe.

If this statement of the Sentinel be true, the people in those portions of the State which have furnished not only their own number of men, but have filled up the deficiency in the delinquent districts, also will watch the Governor's action in this matter with a deep interest. Will he promptly order the draft to take place in those districts that have failed to respond to the call of their country as they ought, or will he play into the hands of these sneaks and let the loyal and the patriotic bear all the heat and burden of this trying hour? That is what the people want to know.

If it be said that the quota of the State being full, such action on the part of the Governor would work an injustice to Wisconsin, by taking off men needed for laborers, it may be replied that it is no more of a drain upon the industrial forces of the State to draft two thousand men, than it is for two thousand men to volunteer, or for five thousand men to go for 100 days service; and we very much doubt if those districts that are yet deficient on their former quotas are now suffering from this three month's service to any alarming extent. The track is tolerably fresh south of the Rapidan, and they are not the kind of men to go into this Abolition war, as they call it, unless they are encouraged by Uncle Sam's draft.

We much mistake the Governor's fidelity to the people of the whole State, as well as his natural sense of justice, not to mention the higher and more sacred duty of aiding his Government in this most trying hour—if he does not order the draft to take place at once in all delinquent districts, provided the matter has been left to his decision by the military authorities at Washington.

Then the Milwaukee News, that has taken especial pains to severely criticise the action of the Governor for calling out volunteers for one hundred drys, can turn its attention to filling up the quota of its own city, and thus put the necessity of any more volunteers entirely out of the question.

Letter from Virginia.

CAMP HAMILTON, Va., May 3d.

DEAR BROTHER:—You have observed the preparation being made in this department for an advance on Richmond. The movement is about to begin. Troops are embarking at this place, and at Yorktown. The artillery of our division got aboard this evening. To-morrow morning the infantry embark. We are almost as much in the dark as to our destination, where the first blow will be struck, as you are. I feel pretty certain that we will try our fortune against Fort Darling. How large the column will be which will operate on the right bank of the James, I am unable to conjecture. I am inclined to think that the movement on Richmond will be made in triple column, but I can scarcely appreciate the strategy, unless it be a feint, which places a column on the right bank of the James, with two rivers in the rear, and one between it and the column on the peninsula. Conjecture however is useless. It is enough that a campaign is about to open which vastly exceeds in every respect any yet undertaken during the war, and that our division (colored) is set down for a conspicuous part in this campaign.

In order that you may keep sight of us, I will give you our organization as far as I am acquainted with it. Our division, composed entirely of U. S. colored troops, consists of two brigades of infantry, two regiments of cavalry, and two newly organized batteries. Gen. E. W. Hinks of Massachusets, commands the division, Gen. Wilde commands one brigade of infantry, composed of the second, tenth and twenty-second regiments, commanded respectively by Colonel Holeman, Lieutenant Colonel Chamberlain and Col. Kiddoo.

Col. S. A. Duncan commanded the other brigade, composed of the fourth, fifth and sixth regiments, commanded respectively by myself, Col. Carwine and Col. Amer. Col. Garrard commanded one regiment of cavalry. I don't know the commander of the other. Captain Choate commanded one of the batteries, and the commander of the other battery is also unknown to me.

The prisoners we may take are to be kept seperate from others, and placed to our credit to receive the same treatment of ours in the hands of the rebels, or rather, are to be shot and hung for mistreatment visited on our command by the enemy.

I presume the two corps of this department about to engage in the campaign number nearly sixty thousand men. Within four days there will be hard fighting. I shall write you again as soon as I have time after something has been done, after we have been engaged. Birney Cooper and Marsh Beane are here engaged with Bill Cooper. They will remain behind for the present, but will be near enough to render me assistance, should any be needed, if I fall in the fight.

I should have mentioned that Smith's army moves with one wagon only to a regiment. The tents of a regiment consisting of shelter tents, and the Fly of one Wall tent for the Headquarters of the regiment.

Yours affectionately,

GEO. ROGERS.

LAST NIGHT two ladies went into the minstrels' performance, and walked coolly down the aisle, and ordered a couple of persons "to sit along," as they wanted a seat. One of them had a Spanish dagger visible, the handle sticking out from her breast, and the other a revolver in her belt. They were given seats in a hurry. —La Crosse Democrat.

SPEECH OF SENATOR DOOLITTLE.

The PRESIDING OFFICER.—The special order of the day is before the Senate, being the motion of the Senator from Minnesota [Mr. Wilkinson] that the Senate further insist upon its amendments to the bill (H. R. No. 15) to provide a temporary government for the Territory of Montana, and agree to the conference asked for by the House of Representatives on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses.

Mr. Doolittle. Mr. President, I certainly do not object to a free conference upon the disagreeing votes between the two Houses. This bill originated in the House of Representatives. It came from the Committee on Territories, of which Mr. Ashley, a distinguished gentleman from the State of Ohio, is chairman—a gentleman no less distinguished for his great legal ability than for his earnest and untiring devotion to the cause of human liberty and the preservation of the Union. The bill, in accordance with all precedent from the beginning of the Government down to the present hour, limited the right of suffrage to white men; to men of the Caucassian race. In this form the bill passed the House of Representatives without division. It may be said to have received the unanimous sanction of that body. It came to the Senate; was referred to the Committee on Territories, over which the distinguished Senator from Ohio presides, than whom there is no man in this body, in the other House, or in the whole country more devoted to the cause of liberty and to defend the rights of the oppressed African race. I refer to Senator Wade from Ohio. From that committee the bill was reported to this body without any amendment. It was called up to be put on its passage; was just ready to pass; and, doubtless, would have received the unanimous vote of the Senate but for the fact that my honorable friend from Minnesota [Mr. Wilkinson] deemed it his duty, upon his responsibility as a Senator, to introduce and carry through the Senate an amendment which it is claimed will extend the right of suffrage to colored men of African and perhaps also of Indian descent. The House of Representatives has disagreed; still insists upon its disagreement; and now asks the Senate to appoint a committee of free conference on the subject.

For myself, so far as this Territory of Montana is concerned, I care but very little in which form the bill shall pass, whether in the form proposed by the Senator from Minnesota or in the form proposed by the Committee on Territories of the House, sanctioned by that House and sanctioned by the committee of this body; but, sir, that against which I enter my most earnest protest is the raising of this new issue, in form or in substance, out of this controversy between the two Houses; against throwing that issue, at this time and in the present state of the country, as a new element to inflame and imbitter the great controversy to come off in the ensuing presidential election: I mean the issue of negro suffrage. Although perhaps in the form of the words employed this issue is not necessarily involved, yet it is so generally understood throughout the country by the press and by the people.

From my friendship and my high respect for the honorable member from Minnesota, I have every reason to know that he was actuated only by the highest and most patriotic considerations; but with all my respect for him I must be permitted to say that, in my judgment, he has raised an issue unnecessary—an issue which, if it be persisted in, will of necessity be involved in and would control the result of the coming presidential contest. I say this issue is altogether unnecessary. So far as it attempts to establish negro suffrage in the Territory of Montana, it is wholly impracticable; for I now repeat what I said the other day, there is not one single person of African descent known to be within that Territory. I know my friend from Minnesota, on information received from a gentleman by the name of Langford, long a resident of that Territory, said there was one person of African decent there, and he was worth $50,000. Mr. Langford happened to be in the gallery when that statement was made by the honorable Senator from Minnesota. He at once sent his card to an honorable member upon this floor, sought an introduction, and informed him that there was, it is true, at one time one person of African descent in that Territory, and he was the fortunate discoverer of a mine estimated by some to be worth $50,000; but that he is dead, and now there is not one single person of African descent in the proposed Territory of Montana. I repeat, therefore, so far as concerns the extension of suffrage to persons of African descent, this proposition is the merest abstraction in the world.

But there are other persons in that Territory, other colored men, men of Indian descent, who, under this amendment of the Senator from Minnesota might, I do not say they practically would, but might be embraced within its provisions. There are, perhaps, five thousand persons of Indian descent within this proposed Territory. Under the provisions of the Senate amendment it might occur that these Indians would declare intention to become citizens of the United States, and thereby become entitled to the right of suffrage within this Territory. I do not say I think they would, or that it is probable they would, but they might.

Mr. Wilkinson. With the Senator's permission, I wish to ask him if Indians can become citizens of the United States under our naturalization laws by complying with the provisions, by declaring their intention and taking the oath, &c.

Mr. Doolittle. That is a disputed question of law, upon which persons take diffrent sides, as they do about the Chinese, the Malays, and all the red and yellow races; Chancellor Kent, if I recollect aright, taking the ground that they are not capable of becoming naturalized. I will not enter into its discussion now. But this thing, which although not probable, is nevertheless, possible, might actually take place within this Territory. The history of what occurred in the State of Minnesota, in one of its far-off election districts, at Pembina, ought to warn us of what might possibly occur, under the lead of designing demagogues, who, to carry an election, use any means, right or wrong, in their power. By the constitution of Minnesota, while negroes and persons of African descent are excluded from the right of suffrage, Indians who have adopted the habits of civilized life are permitted to exercise that right. At the first election in that new State, at the Pembina district, it is said not only Indians who had adopted the habits of civilized life, but wild blanket Indians of the woods, were led to the polls, to exercise the right of suffrage under the manipulation of these demagogues. It was a very simple operation for those designing men, with a few suits of clothes, hats, coats, and pants, and plenty of whisky and tobacco, to strip the wild Indian of his blanket, clothe him in the habiliments and addict him to some of the habits of civilized life, and to bring him thus arrayed and addicted forward to the polls to deposit his ballot, to return again to the woods to exchange his civilized costume for the savage costume of another wild Indian, to be led to the polls to repeat the same operation.

Now, I do not undertake to say that in my opinion such a thing would occur in the Territory of Montana; but inasmuch as it did once occur in the State of Minnesota, I say that it might occur even in the Territory of Montana if there was a fiercely contested election in which great interest was felt by those who, without scruple sometimes undertake to carry an election by any means, fair or foul.

So far, then, as this amendment of the Senate extends any right of suffrage to persons of African descent in the Territory of Montana, it is a mere abstraction, and in whichever form the bill shall pass it will have no effect whatever in the Territory. The question then perhaps may be asked, "Why do you oppose the assertion of an abstraction, or the raising of an abstract issue, which can have no application?" I answer, because all history teaches that upon mere abstractions, which have no practical application, sometimes the fiercest and most bitter controversies arise, whether in the religious, the political, or even in the scientific world. Who has forgotten that it was the assertion of an abstraction in the change of the sound of a single vowel in one Greek word, whether it whould be pronounced "Homoousion" or "Homoiousion," the shade of difference between just alike and almost alike, that divided the religious world, produced a controversy for ages, and sometimes bathed its sacred altars in human blood? Who has forgotten that it was the assertion by Mr. Calhoun of the abstract proposition, "Slavery is a blessing." "Slavery is a divine institution," which has been the cause of this very war in which we are now engaged? Philosophically speaking, it was this dogma of his, asserted, presisted in, carried into and triumphing at last in the schools, the press, the legislative halls of the South, which made slavery aggressive, and at last forced upon Congress, upon the President, and upon the Supreme Court that policy and those measures which have launched us upon a sea of troubles and plunged our beloved country into this terrible struggle of blood, agony, and tears.

Following his dogma came the assertion in the Dred Scott decision of the abstract right to take slaves into all the Territories of the Union. The assertion of the same abstract right to take slaves into the Territory repealed the Missouri compromise, the blow which opened this civil strife, in my judgment, the immediate cause of this war, the fatal tempter which, entering into our peaceful paradise, brought "death and all our woe."

Mr. President, you will understand me. I do not propose to enter upon the discussion of the question of the propriety of negro suffrage; not at all. I propose to show that now is no time to raise that question or to discuss it. I will only say that, in my judgment, this question properly belongs to the States.

INSURE WITH THE MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF WISCONSIN—IT IS THE BEST COMPANY FOR WESTERN MEN!—The reasons why this is the best Company, are: That it is a Western Company, made up of and managed by Western men, doing all or nearly all its business in the Northwest, and concentrating in this one Company a superior class of risks, mostly of young men, or men in the prime of life, and they selected with as great care in regard to eligibility to Life Insurance, as are the risks of any other company.

It is true that the Company has neither the age nor the accumulations of some eastern companies, but is gaining the latter very fast; is vigorous for one of its age; is doing a large business, having issued 637 policies in the months of December and January just passed, and is doing its business as economically as the same can be done anywhere. It has for its guide, the experience of all older companies, and among its managers some of the best business men in the northwest.

This is the first successful effort ever made to build up a similar institution in the West, and it should be the pride, as it certainly is the interest, of every business man in this section of the State, to identify himself with its growth.

This Company issues non-forfeiting policies, upon which premiums are paid in five or ten annual payments. These non-forfeiting policies are very desirable, as they guarantee to the policy holder the benefit of all the money that he pays into the Company, and also enable him to pay his premiums for the whole of life while he is young, or at an early period, thus relieving him from the burden of payment in old age. Insurance upon this plan, (as well as on all other policies that this Company issues) become due and payable at death, should death occur before the ten years expire.

It also issues the endowment policy which becomes due and payable to the party assured at a stated age specified. These latter policies are becoming quite popular, and are particularly desirable for young men.

"A SLIGHT COLD," COUGHS.

Few are aware of the importance of checking a Cough or "SLIGHT COLD" in its first stage; that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected, soon attacks the lungs. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" give sure and almost immediate relief. Military Officers and Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket and taken as occasion requires.

This splendid Hair Dye is perfect—changes Red, Rusty, or Grey Hair, instantly to a Glossy Black or Natural Brown, without injuring the hair or staining the skin, leaving the hair soft and beautiful, imparts fresh vitality, frequently restoring its pristine color, and rectifies the ill effects of bad dyes. The genuine is signed WILLIAM A. BACHELOR, all others are mere imitations, and should be avoided. Sold by all Druggists, &c. Factory—81 BARCLAY St., N. Y. HELMSTREET'S INIMITABLE HAIR RESTORATIVE.

It is not a DYE, but restores gray hair to its original color, by supplying the capillary tubes with natural sustenance impaired by age or disease. All instantaneous dyes are composed of lunar caustic, destroying the vitality and beauty of the hair, and afford of themselves no dressing. Helmstreet's Inimitable Coloring not only restores hair to its natural color by an easy process, but gives the hair a luxuriant beauty, promotes its growth, prevents its falling off, eradicates dandruff, and imparts health and pleasantness to the head. It has stood the test of time; being the original Hair coloring, and is constantly increasing in favor. Used by both gentlemen and ladies. It is sold by all respectable dealers, or can be procured by them of the commercial agents, D. S. BARNES & Co., 202 Broadway, New York. Two sizes, 50 cents and $1. aug1daweowly

WYNKOOP'S ICELAND PECTORAL.

Diseases of the Throat, Chest, and Pulmonary Organs are ever prevalent, insidious and dangerous. The properties of a medicine to alleviate, cure, and uproot these complaints, must be expectorant, anodyne and invigorating, loosening the mucus of the throat, and imparting tone to the entire system. No discovery in medical science ever mastered this class of diseases like Dr. Wynkoop's Iceland Pectoral. It is used with the most astonishing results in all cases of Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Diptheria or Putrid Sore Throat, Asthma, Croup, Coughs, Colds, Nervous Irritability, &c.

The Rev. J. J. POTTER certifies—"that I have used Dr. Wynkoop's Pectoral for several years, myself and in my family, for severe pulmonary complaints, and have recommended it to many others, and have never seen its equal." Rev. J. J. POTTER, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Hundreds and thousands of important testimonials could be produced, showing its remarkable cures and that it never fails.

It is composed of pure Iceland Moss, Balm of Gilead, Peruvian Balsam, Elecampane, Comfrey, Burdock, and other invaluable expectorant and tonic ingredients. It is harmless, prompt and lasting. Invalids and sufferers cannot afford to neglect a trial. Every family should have it. It is remarkable for Croup. Full descriptions, recommendations and directions accompany each bottle.

Sold by all the principal Druggists.

Prepared by Dr. R. D. WYNKOOP, and sold by D. S Barnes & Co., New York. aug10dawcowly

Friend Doty:

Your last improvement of your Washing Machine is a complete success. As it was before, it was the first machine that I could ever get countenanced. As it is now all agree that it is more convenient, and washes more clothes at once then the other. A little slim girl of ten years uses it; and an invalid lady, who has to sit down to work, can wash without fatigue.

You have won blessings from all the women about this house, be assured of that.

Your friend, SOLON ROBINSON.

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE

Over the Post Office!

There is nothing so much sought for by the public as a practical Sewing Machine, one that is Simple, Strong & Reliable.

One that will run for years without the annoyance of being out of repair; one that is noiseless and swift in motion; also that makes the stitch as you want it, alike on both sides of the fabric; such are the machines of the

COMPANY!

Who take pleasure in placing their machines before the public, and unhesitatingly say they are the best in the world, and openly and publicly challenge machines of any and all manufactures to do as large a range of work as can easily be done on one of these machines. They make

and have all the advantages of a reversible feed motion, which carries the work either way, which, together with making all the four stitches, can be done whilst the machine is in motion; the saving of time in stepping to change the length of stitch, is obviated by this machine.

Any correspondence regarding our machines will be promptly answered. Enclose a letter stamp and we will send circular and sample of work by return mail.

CHEROKEE REMEDY

AND

CHEROKEE INJECTION!

Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic cures all diseases of the urinary organs.

☞ It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two teaspoonfuls three times per day.

☞ It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the Cherokee Remedy, and should be used in conjunction with that medicine in all cases of Gleet, Gonorrhea, Fluor Albus. Its effects are healing, soothing and demulcent, removing all scalding, heat and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack injections.

☞ By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

☞ Price, Cherokee Remedy, $2 per bottle, or three bottles for $5.

Janesville Daily Gazette.

THURSDAY, MAY 12, 1864.

NEW LAW POINT.—In Springfield, Illinois, a suit has grown out of the dog-killing operations of the police, that presents a novel "law point." It is an action of trespass, and originated this wise: A son put his father's dog outside the paling, and told a policeman to shoot him, which was done. The father didn't relish the idea of having his dog killed by a policeman, and so brought suit against the son. A dogmatic old gentleman, indeed!

THE WASHINGTON correspondent of the Rochester Democrat, says:

"The army is provided with sixteen days' rations for men and animals. Gen. Grant will try to keep direct communication open with Washington; but does not rely upon or depend upon being able to do so during the next ten days."

Will be sold by auction, on

Thursday the 23d of June Next,

in the city of Janesville, Rock county, Wisconsin, thirty-eight hundred and forty (3840) acres of the finest agricultural lands in the State. They are situated about ten miles from Janesville, and adjoining the village of Footville, with the Beloit & Madison Railroad running through them, and the Milwaukee & Southern Wisconsin Railroad on their border, and are composed of about an equal quantity of heavy "grove" timber and prairie. They will be sold in farm parcels, and the purchase money, less twenty or twenty-five per cent, which must be paid in cash, may remain on mortgage at seven per cent. interest, for seven or ten years, excepting timber lots which will be sold for cash.
There will also be sold at the same time and place, and in the same manner, but wholly for cash, twenty two hundred (2,200) acres of prime lands in Marathon county, near the town of Wausau, selected about eight years ago.
A more eligible opportunity for farmers to secure most desirable farms, or for the investment of capital, could not be offered.

FARMERS, TAKE NOTICE!

The undersigned are having made at Beloit, Wis., one hundred of those Reapers known as the Cheap, or Webber Reaper!

Notwithstanding the increase of nearly double in price over other years of all materials put in Reapers, we are going to sell for 1864 at about the same prices as before. Our prices at the shop are $110 cash for single Reaper, for Reaper and Mower $140. We are making Fifty Mowers, which will be warranted to do good work. They will be made of steel bars of the Buckeye pattern, except the hinges.
Those buying Reapers alone can have Mowers the next year or thereafter for the same price, as the difference between reaper and mower.
We do not deem it necessary to extol our Reaper, for it is already known to be the only two-horse Reaper in use. Notwithstanding a great many are used with two horses, they ought to use three or four, and some of them six, to be as easy to the horse as ours are to two ordinary horses.
Please send in your orders early to be sure of a machine, as positively only one hundred of them will be built, and we will warrant each and every machine to

Work Well in all Kinds of Grain!

The Rods will be different from last year. They will be the over hanging rod, and have six bats instead of four keeping the reel, holding the grain to the sickle steady.
They will be shipped to any depot in Wisconsin or Illinois. Ten per cent. will be added if sold on time. One half the 1st of September, 1864, the balance the 1st of September, 1865.
Those buying machines will confer a favor by giving this machine publicity in their respective neighborhoods. When material gets to its usual stage we intend to make it a ninety dollar machine, and should have done it but for the unprecedented high prices of everything to construct machines with.

The Reaper Shop at Afton!

will attend strictly to the repairing of the Webber Reaper. None others wanted. We are prepared to change from chain to belt, put on caster wheels upon short notice. Men will be on hand to repair promptly. Charges light as the cost of material will admit. We shall manufacture none at that place, consequently we will be prepared to repair. Work solicited. All orders should be directed to

Teeth Extracted Without Pain.

Dr. Burrus has also just procured a quantity of pure, Hydric Aether, which has been pronounced by all the Dental and Medical Journals, as well as by the ablest of the medical profession, to be the best and safest of all the anesthetic agents yet known for the purpose of extracting teeth. He has a new mode of administering this agent, a new apparatus for the express purpose. It is preferable to and less dangerous, though analogous, to the

Nitrous Oxide Gas, (Laughing Gas.)

This gas has been before the public over half a century, and proved to be dangerous and uncertain in its action.

Dr. Teft's Local Anasthecia.

Dr. Burrus uses this agent for all who desire it. A small piece of cotton wet with this agent put around the neck of the tooth soon removes all sensibility in the parts. It is not dangerous under any circumstances.

COTTSCHALK ON KNABE.

[Translated from the French.]

After having played on the Piano of Messrs. Knabe & Co., it is impossible not to bear testimony to their qualities, which have acquired for them the eminent reputation which they enjoy. The Pianos of their manufacture, on which I have played, are exceedingly remarkable for their qualities. The bass is powerful without harshness, and the upper notes sweet, clear and harmoniously mellow, (chrystaline,) and I do not hesitate to express in regard to these instruments my entire satisfaction, and to declare that they are equal if not superior to the best manufactured in Europe or this country by the most celebrated makers.

DOTY'S CLOTHES WASHERS ARE THE BEST.

READ THE PROOF.

EAST YONKERS, N. Y.,
"WASHING DAY," April 18, 1861.

Friend Doty:

Your last improvement of your Washing Machine is a complete success. As it was before, it was the first machine that I could ever get countenanced. As it is now all agree that it is more convenient, and washes more clothes at once then the other. A little slim girl of ten years uses it; and an invalid lady, who has to sit down to work, can wash without fatigue.

You have won blessings from all the women about this house, be assured of that.

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE

Over the Post Office!

There is nothing so much sought for by the public as a practical Sewing Machine, one that is Simple, Strong & Reliable.

One that will run for years without the annoyance of being out of repair; one that is noiseless and swift in motion; also that makes the stitch as you want it, alike on both sides of the fabric; such are the machines of the

COMPANY!

Who take pleasure in placing their machines before the public, and unhesitatingly say they are the best in the world, and openly and publicly challenge machines of any and all manufactures to do as large a range of work as can easily be done on one of these machines. They make

and have all the advantages of a reversible feed motion, which carries the work either way, which, together with making all the four stitches, can be done whilst the machine is in motion; the saving of time in stepping to change the length of stitch, is obviated by this machine.

Any correspondence regarding our machines will be promptly answered. Enclose a letter stamp and we will send circular and sample of work by return mail.

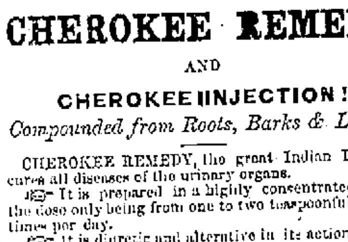
THE LONG SOUGHT FOR

DISCOVERED AT LAST.



CHEROKEE REMEDY

AND

CHEROKEE INJECTION!

Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic cures all diseases of the urinary organs.

☞ It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two teaspoonfuls three times per day.

☞ It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the Cherokee Remedy, and should be used in conjunction with that medicine in all cases of Gleet, Gonorrhea, Fluor Albus. Its effects are healing, soothing and demulcent; removing all scalding, heat and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack injections.

☞ By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

☞ Price, Cherokee Remedy, $2 per bottle, or three bottles for $5.

All proposals must specify the names of the sureties proposed to be given, and must contain their consent to the use of their names as such.

Any contract made under the provisions of said act will reserve the right and power in the State to declare such contract abandoned and forfeited, if the contractors shall neglect or abandon the work, or fail to prosecute the same with such diligence and dispatch as will reasonably secure the completion of the work in the time specified in such contract; and such contract will provide that no liability whatever shall exist on the part of the State for any service rendered under or upon any contract so abandoned or forfeited.

No bid will be received or considered except for the completion of the entire work proposed to be done, and no contract will be entered into for the performance of such work, that shall create any liability against the State greater than thirty-five thousand dollars, the largest sum for which such contract can be let, under chapter 345 of the general laws of 1864.

Upon the opening of said bids at the time specified, the undersigned building commissioners will award the contract to the person or persons they shall determine to be the lowest and best bidder, within the meaning of the law.
